LAGCC Law Forum: Pathways and Careers in Law

Friday, April 8th, from 2pm - 4pm

An online advising event for students interested in pursuing legal studies and future careers related to law either in the public or private sector. The event features two panels of speakers. The first panel includes alumni from LAGCC and CUNY sharing their paths toward careers in the law. The second panel includes representatives from pre-law programs and law schools explaining how to successfully navigate the admissions process. All panelists will offer career and educational advice to prospective students.

This event is sponsored by Political Science, Criminal Justice, Paralegal Studies and Campus Life
